

How to: Hanging Ornament

1. Trace line drawing on to watercolor paper.
2. Small gold berries: mix light orange and brown to make gold. Paint in little gold berries and the top of ball on hanging ribbon.
3. Leaves: Paint oval shaped leaves with a watered down dark green. Let dry. Then mix green and black and outline the leaves and paint in veins. Using same dark green mixture paint the remaining branches
4. Berries: You will be mixing two different shades of red. Mix red and white for a lighter shade of red. For darker shade of red, mix red and brown. Paint in berries with lighter shade first and then sporadically paint in darker red shade over lighter shade. NOTE: leave white areas on the tops of some berries.
5. Ribbon: Using the same shade of light and dark red as berries, paint in ribbon with lighter shade of red. Let dry. Then paint in darker shades of red.
6. Detail in berries: Using black paint, paint in the tops of some berries.
